ABOUT

“Quindecennial” — a term that signifies the completion of fifteen years — beautifully captures the essence of this grand milestone in the journey of HISAN (Home for Islamic Sensible Activities of Nahjurashad). It stands as a celebration of time well spent in nurturing minds, shaping identities, and empowering the student community with purpose and principle. More than just an anniversary, Quindecennial is a tribute to fifteen years of vision, values, and vibrant action. Rooted in Islamic sensibility and youthful dynamism, HISAN has remained a platform that inspires critical thought, spiritual depth, and social responsibility among students of Darul Huda Islamic University and its affiliated colleges.

From academic excellence to cultural creativity, from faith-centered campaigns to language-driven contests — each initiative reflects HISAN's mission: to build conscious, capable, and value-driven youth for the ummah and the world. Let Quindecennial be more than a memory — let it be a movement. A revival of our roots, a renewal of our resolve, and a rejoicing of the road ahead. HISAN continues its legacy as the home of Islamic sense, student voice, and meaningful transformation.

VISION

To cultivate a vibrant, value-driven student community that embraces art, honors the passage of time, and journeys together in pursuit of knowledge, identity, and purpose. We envision a legacy where tradition meets creativity, and every step forward is guided by wisdom and unity.

RATING 15 YEARS CELEBRATING 15 YEARS

MISSION

To celebrate 15 remarkable years of student spirit, leadership, and cultural richness by reflecting on our past, appreciating the moments that shaped us, and reimagining our journey forward. Through the lens of “Kala, Kaalam, Sanchaaram” — Art, Time, and Journey — we aim to spark dialogue, creativity, and collective reflection that strengthens our bond and renews our commitment to meaningful growth.
